Before the Honorable the British Resident in Mysore.

Miscellaneous petition no. 67 of 1910.

L Venkatachar, Sri Vaishnava Brahman son of Thallachar, aged 63 residing in Bangalore city. } petitioner

Under sections 17 and 6 of the Succession Certificate Act (VII of 1889) the petitioner begs to state as follows:—

I. One Srirangammal the 2nd wife of the petitioner was living with him at Bangalore till 18th February 1908 when she died leaving behind her surviving (1) petitioner (2) two minor sons, L V. Seshadri aged 13 and L. V. Ramaswami aged 10, both living with and under the protection of the petitioner and (3) a daughter Srirangaramma aged about 18 living with and under the protection of her husband

Hatti Ramaswamiengar, Krishna Vilas Agraharam, Mysore.

II During the life-time of the said Sirangammal, several small sums of money belonging to the petitioner amounting to Rupees one thousand and seventy six, annas one, and pies three (Rs. 1076-1-3) were deposited upto 4-9-07 in the Postal Savings Bank in the name of the said Sirangammal, as per Postal Savings Bank Book no. 34342 issued by the Post Masters, Head Office Bangalore.

III A sum of about Rupees One thousand one hundred and eighty (Rs. 1180-0-0) is now due under the said Savings Bank Book, and from the correspondence that has taken place in this connection between the petitioner and the post masters General Madras, this sum is treated as the assets of the deceased Sirangammal and will not be paid until a Succession certificate is produced in respect thereof.

IV

IV. From the said Correspondence it is further clear that the said Sum of money cannot be paid, without the Sanction of the post Master General at Madras and therefore must be considered as property situate there.

V. The petitioner's said sons and daughter have no interest in the said money.

VI The said daughter Sringaramma and the three Sons of the petitioner by his 1st deceased wife have addressed letters to the post Master General disclaiming any interest in the said money.

VII The deceased has not left any will or other testamentary disposition in respect of this Sum of money.

Therefore the petitioner prays that treating the said Sum of money as the property of the deceased, a Succession certificate may kindly be granted to him enabling him on production thereof to apply to the post Masters General of Madras or other Officers having authority in the matter and to collect and recover the Same from them.

A Sum of Rupees 24/- is herewith produces to meet the Cost of the Stamp paper of the Certificate.
